

Dog Breed: Beagle

Artwork: Windholme's Bartender

Artist: Gustav Muss-Arnolt

Fun Fact: A beagle's ears are long enough to touch its nose. The ears can help the dog keep track of smells.

Dog Breed: Greyhound

Artwork: Hound Near Stonehenge

Artist: Edmund Bristow

Fun Fact: Greyhound is the fastest dog breed. Their paws have shock absorbing pads, which act like built in running shoes.

Dog Breed: Yorkshire Terrier (Yorkie)

Artwork: Recumbent Yorkshire Terrier on Lawn

Artist: A. E. Evan

Fun Fact: Yorkies have similar hair to humans, which makes it easy to tangle if kept long and unkept.

Dog Breed: German Shepherd Dog

Artwork: Two Alsations

Artist: Arthur Wardle

Fun Fact: A German Shepherd Dog was rescued in France during World War I and became the famous movie star Rin Tin Tin.

Dog Breed: Afghan Hound
Artwork: Ch Asri Havid of Ghanzi, Sirdar of Ghanzi, Ch. West Mill Omar of Prides Hill
Artist: Frederick Thomas Daws
Fun Fact: The Afghan is possibly the oldest purebred dog breed and were mountain dogs.

Dog Breed: Bichon Frise
Artwork: Bichon Frise Lying on a Red Pillow
Artist: Louis-Eugène Lambert
Fun Fact: Since the 1200s, Bichon Frise could be seen in many royal courts across Europe.

Dog Breed: Siberian Husky
Artwork: They Opened the North Country
Artist: Fred Machetanz
Fun Fact: Siberian Husky sled dogs were used by the U.S. Army for arctic search and rescue missions during World War II.

Dog Breed: French Bulldog
Artwork: French Bulldog
Artist: S. Raphael
Fun Fact: French Bulldogs actually originate from England, and the popular companion of English lacemakers in Nottingham.